

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved due to the reduction of phone calls through out the day, week and month.

The Indiana's law has reduced our calls of an average of 8 calls per day to 1 (or less) call per day.

The Indiana law should be the master law that the FCC incorporates in their Telephone Law.